

Ken Wurster Community Leadership Award

for independent pharmacists

Ken Wurster was a community pharmacist in the Tampa, Florida, area who passed away in 2008. In honor of his commitment to his community and his customers, Cardinal Health and the National Retail Advisory Board, created the Ken Wurster Community Leadership Award. Each year at RBC, this award is presented to an independent pharmacist who demonstrates a commitment to promoting the principles of community pharmacy.

Troy Simons, 2018 Ken Wurster Award Winner

Award details

Cardinal Health will present the winner of the 2019 Ken Wurster Community Leadership Award with an engraved award that can be displayed in his or her pharmacy, and will also donate $10,000 in the winner's name to a pharmacy school or pharmacy association of his or her choice. The award winner will be judged on a variety of criteria, including community leadership and involvement, the ability to inspire others and the willingness to go above and beyond the day-to-day requirements of a pharmacist to make his or her community a better place to live. The winner will be announced at RBC.

Nomination process

If you know of a community pharmacist peer who you think would be an excellent candidate for this honor, please ask your Cardinal Health Pharmacy Business Consultant for the digital nomination form. After the form is completed, please email the application to CommunityPharmacy@cardinalhealth.com.

Selection process

Nominations will be accepted until May 3, 2019. A maximum of five nominees will be submitted as finalists to a decision-making committee, including Cardinal Health executives, to evaluate and select the winner.

Learn more

For more information about the Ken Wurster Community Leadership Award, please visit the "Community and Awards" tab on the RBC website at rbc.cardinalhealth.com.

Community Pharmacy Advantage

Realizing the power of independence in business,
retail and wellness.

Retail
Advantage

Wellness
Advantage

Business
Advantage

